1ST AFRICA SCHOOLS OF GOVERNMENT CONFERENCE KICKS OFF IN MOMBASA

KSG and Management Development Institutions (MDIs) play a pivotal role in providing learning and development programs to strengthen public officers' management and operational capacities across Kenya, the region, and the continent

Cabinet Secretary for Public Service Hon. Justin Muturi presided over the official opening of the first Regional Conference of the Africa School of Government, being held at the Kenya School of Government (KSG) Mombasa.

In his key note address to the participants drawn from various African countries, the Cabinet Secretary expressed optimism about the future impact of Management Development Institutions (MDIs) and Schools of Government following the conference, and called for unity in transforming Africa's public service.

He encouraged attendees to contribute their talents towards making the public service more just, humane, prosperous, and peaceful.

The CS further commended the conference's efforts, and expressed pride in KSG and similar institutions that promote continuous learning, evidence-based research, and impactful engagement for the betterment of public service in Africa.

KWALE COUNTY COUNTY HOSTS 61ST MASHUJAA DAY CELEBRATIONS

Cabinet Secretary Hon. Justin Muturi joined H.E. President William Samoei Ruto and other leaders in celebrating the heroes who have shaped our nation's progress.

A special moment was the historic leadership of Lieutenant Colonel Faith Mwangi as the first female senior officer to command the Guard of Honor at a national event.

As we reflect on our achievements as a nation, the Affordable Housing Programme stood out as a key transformative initiative. This programme is not just about homes—it's about creating jobs, improving livelihoods, and dignifying the lives of every Kenyan.

CS MUTURI TOURS NYS TECHNICAL TRAINING COLLEGE, MOMBASA

Hon. Justin B. Muturi, accompanied by PS Amos Gathecha, made his first tour of the National Youth Service Technical Training College in Mombasa County.

NYS plays a pivotal role in shaping the future of public service, fostering a culture of discipline and excellence in service delivery that is vital for national development.

Tree planting in line with BETA Agenda to plant 15 billion trees by 2030

CS, PS TOUR HUDUMA CENTRES IN MOMBASA & KILIFI COUNTIES, FOR CUSTOMER SERVICE ASSESSMENT

Hon. Justin B. Muturi accompanied by PS Public Service Mr Amos Gathecha, toured Huduma Centres in Mombasa and Kilifi, continuing with his nationwide visits to assess the level of public service delivery.

With a focus on efficiency and citizen satisfaction, his hands-on evaluation aims to streamline operations and elevate service standards of Huduma Centres across the Country. So far, the CS has visited Huduma Centres in Nairobi, Kisumu, and now Mombasa, reinforcing the government's commitment to improved and accessible service delivery to all Kenyans.

The Cabinet Secretary expressed his deep appreciation for the exceptional outreach programs that Huduma staff are providing to local communities, aimed at enhancing the level of service delivery. He emphasized that treating customers with a smile ensures they leave with a smile.

The provision of a crèche at the centre, catering for the needs of lactating mothers, was recognized as a thoughtful innovation.

In his closing remarks, the CS inspired Huduma staff to continue their remarkable efforts in transforming lives, urging them to maintain their dedication to excellence. He emphasized that their commitment to customer satisfaction is key to driving impactful and efficient government service delivery.

PRESENTATION OF THE SALARIES AND REMUNERATION SELECTION PANEL REPORT

Salaries and Remuneration Commission (SRC) selection panel members, officially handed over the panel's report to Cabinet Secretary Justin Muturi.

PS Gathecha led the selection panel, which was tasked with selecting nominees for appointment as SRC Chairperson.

CS Muturi commended the team for timely delivery of the report, which will be handed over to H. E the President, for appointment of SRC Chairperson, ensuring smooth transition in the Commission.
